

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. People should have the right to privacy in their own homes. My family should not have to receive phone calls if they do not wish too. This law has really made a difference in the number of "junk" phone calls that we receive. Lessening the effectiveness of this law would have negative effects on my time at home.